Inclusive Creative Learning in Action

Photographic highlights of TAAM’s previous inclusive arts activities with children and youth with disabilities

Supporting evidence | The Commonwell L.E.A.F. Grant Application 2026

Proposed project: Made by Me, Sold by Me

Exploring culture through hands-on crafts

August 22, 2026

Previous workshops introduced cultural crafts and supported hands-on learning with facilitator guidance.

Photographs document previous TAAM activities, not the proposed grant-funded project.

Creativity, choice and self-expression

August 29, 2026

Participants explored materials, colours and designs while making their own creative choices.

Photographs document previous TAAM activities, not the proposed grant-funded project.

Learning skills and creating together

September 2026

Guided activities offered opportunities to practise creative skills, communicate and learn together.

Photographs document previous TAAM activities, not the proposed grant-funded project.

TORONTO ASIAN ART MUSEUM • TAAM

Building connections through art

September 19, 2026

Previous sessions show participants creating artwork and engaging in shared activities.

Photographs document previous TAAM activities, not the proposed grant-funded project.

Individual support and creative achievement

September 26, 2026

Small-group activities and facilitator support helped participants engage at their own pace.

Photographs document previous TAAM activities, not the proposed grant-funded project.